In a 2006 story about the Grammy Awards, the New York Times said of Raiatea Helm: "... (she) sings in a high-voiced throwback leo ki'eki'e style without a hint of kitsch."

A two-time Grammy nominee, eight-time Na Hoku Hanohano Award and two-time Female Vocalist of the Year award winner, Raiatea is the headliner for this summer's Mele & Hula at Lanikuhonua concert slated for 5 p.m., Saturday, September 28.

She will share the stage with award-winning singer, Kamakakehau Fernandez, who a Star-Advertiser review said "sings with a beautiful effortless falsetto that is soft and sweet and never harsh," and Kimo Alama Keaulana, an entertainer and respected authority on hula and music who has been described as having a "wicked ukulele strum and a sweet angel voice."

Award-winning kumu hula La'akea Perry, Howard Ai and Olana Ai, and Twyla Mendez and their halau will also entertain at this third annual summer concert.

The gates open at 4 p.m., and the concert starts at 5 p.m. $20 general admission. $25 at the door. Children 6 years and under are free.

Tickets are available at www.Lanikuhonua.tix.com and Ihilani Resort's concierge desk, or at the door. No outside food, drinks or high back chairs will be allowed. Food and beverages by Tanioka's Seafood and Catering will be available for purchase at the event. For more information, please call 808-674-3167 or visit lanikuhonua.org.
