

The Queen's Medical Center – West O'ahu to open May 20

Public invited to Community Open House on Saturday, May 17

After two and a half years without hospital and emergency services, West O'ahu residents will once again have access to these critical services. On May 20, 2014, The Queen's Medical Center – West O'ahu will open and start accepting patients at 8:00 a.m. To celebrate the event, the public is invited to a free Community Open House on Saturday, May 17, 2014 between 10:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. at the facility located at 91-2141 Fort Weaver Road in Ewa Beach. There will be tours of the hospital, music, health and wellness booths, prize giveaways and more.

"Our Queen's 'ohana is looking forward to serving our state and most importantly the West O'ahu community," said Susan Murray, senior vice president of The Queen's Health Systems, West O'ahu Region, and chief operating officer of The Queen's Medical Center – West O'ahu. "Everyone has been working hard together as a team and we are ready to provide our patients with access to quality healthcare at a state-of-the-art facility without having to travel into Honolulu."

The medical center is located on the former Hawaii Medical Center

(HMC) West campus, which Queen's officially acquired from St. Francis Healthcare System of Hawaii on December 14, 2012.

Services will include those essential to a community hospital such as emergency room, inpatient and outpatient surgery, imaging, cardiology, and specialty clinics. When it opens, the hospital will have 80 beds and will increase up to 135 beds as volume increases.

The Queen's Medical Center was founded in 1859 by Queen Emma and King Kamehameha IV. The opening date of May 20 also coincides with the birthday of the King and Queen's beloved son, Prince Albert.

Kapolei is best place to buy a home in Hawai'i

That's the conclusion of a study by NerdWallet, a financial services website, which analyzed neighborhoods in Hawai'i based on housing affordability and availability and the area's potential for growth. Right behind Kapolei is Ocean Pointe. Three other Kapolei region neighborhoods — West Loch Estate, Ewa Villages and Ewa Gentry — made the top ten. The study was cited in a Honolulu Civil Beat blog.

NerdWallet's analysis found that Kapolei monthly homeownership costs are about 33 percent of monthly household income. It also notes the area's projected growth because of the planned Honolulu rail transit station.
